NH CHRONICLE AND RVTV VISIT DANFORTH BAY AND THE BLUFFS

Freedom, New Hampshire – RVTV and NH Chronicle visited Danforth Bay Camping & RV Resort and The Bluffs RV Resort on Monday, June 14, 2010 to tape footage for upcoming TV segments. NH Chronicle and RVTV focused on the highlights of each resort including the campgrounds' 5-star Woodall's rated facilities and recreation options.

RVTV, www.rvtv.ca, produces relevant, topical shows to inform and entertain the RVing community. RVTV produces footage for the Versus Channel or VHSD. Footage will be available in the area through Time Warner, Direct TV and DISH networks. Actual air times have not yet been determined, but are expected to air in early July.

NH Chronicle, www.wmur.com/chronicle, airs weekdays at 7:30 p.m. on WMUR channel 9 and focuses on the people, places and trends that give the Granite State its unique character. Hosts Tom Griffith and Tiffany Eddy were welcomed to Danforth Bay on Monday for taping. NH Chronicle taped an entire week of footage at Danforth Bay, as Danforth will be the venue for the introduction segments for a week of Chronicle shows. One segment during that week will focus entirely on Danforth Bay and The Bluffs. The shows are expected to air beginning July 5th and running through the end of the week while the Danforth specific segment will air on Tuesday, July 6, 2010.

Owned and operated by Purity Spring Resort, www.purityspring.com, and the Hoyt family since 2001, Danforth Bay Camping & RV Resort welcomes family campers and seasonal guests to its 185 forested acres on Ossipee Lake with its rustic relaxation and modern amenities. In addition to traditional features such as sandy beaches, hiking trails and lake fishing, the resort offers recreational programs, heated swimming pools, movie lounge, WiFi access and live entertainment. Danforth Bay is also open during the winter months and offers snowmobilers central access to hundreds of miles of groomed trails, including Corridor 19.

The Bluffs RV Resort is an expansion of Danforth Bay Camping & RV Resort and offers seasonal and extended-stay RV camping designed exclusively for active adults over 50. The Bluffs offers 250 large RV sites and is spread on a 150-acre hillside which overlooks Huckins Pond and Danforth Bay of Ossipee Lake. Guests can enjoy hiking, biking, canoeing and kayaking or relaxing at the 10,000 square foot Club House, which features two heated saltwater pools, a fully-equipped fitness room and a large 5,000 square foot function room.
